LOIS O'HARA

Lois' large scale, joyful murals are a riot of colour and positivity. Inspired by the Brighton coastline, where she lives, the swooping curves and bold shapes evoke the flow and movement of life. All of Lois' designs can be rescaled, recoloured, and printed onto any of our wallcoverings and window films.

Lois O'Hara was born and raised in Brighton, UK and her designs are inspired by the sea and coastline of the city. Her hand painted murals can be found in urban environments internationally and she has collaborated with brands such as Pantone, Westfield, Habitat and many more. All of Lois' designs can be rescaled, recoloured, and printed onto any of our wallcoverings and window films.

Ordering is simple – Choose a design and send us your wall dimensions. Visit newmor.com for the complete Newmor Designer collection, samples and information about our bespoke wallcovering service.

Customise – We print onto a huge range of substrates, including textures and metallics. Our in-house design studio can recolour and resize most of our designs. We will work with you to select the perfect specification for your application and budget.

Our wallcoverings – Our wallcoverings are fire rated wide-width fabric backed vinyl. They are commercial quality, and we print with UV cured inks which are durable and suitable for high traffic areas.

Window film – Our designs also look great printed onto clear or frosted film and Demiview film.

Samples – Sampling is available through our sales office. Bespoke sampling is also available.

Delivery – Your order will be dispatched within 7-10 days from the approval of your samples.

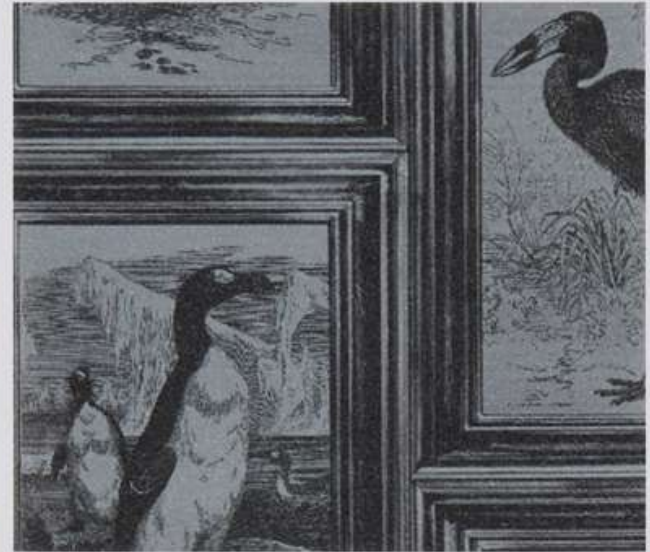

Installation – Digital wallcoverings are as easy to install as standard wide-width wallcoverings. Full hanging instructions are available on our website, and are also supplied with your order. The design is custom printed and supplied in drops to fit your wall, with trim for overlap and cut through.

Visit www.newmor.com for more Newmor Designer and Newmor Custom designs. We can also print your own artwork, images from stock libraries or our design studio can work with you to create a bespoke design. Please contact us or visit our website for more details.

STEPHEN WALTER

Each of Stephen's wallcovering designs have been created directly from a hand-drawn work of art. A tangle of words, symbols, puns, fantastical elements, historical facts, trivia, personal experiences and local knowledge. Close up they look exactly like the originals, retaining the delicate pencil marks, soft charcoal lines, intricate detail and re-worked surfaces.

New Halewood

Stephen's drawings have evolved from his fascination with maps, public and sub-cultural signs, symbols and obsessive tendencies. His major map project, 'The Island – London Series,' was published in 2008 and has been the focus of sustained critical acclaim ever since. Under the guise of traditional techniques and romantic notions of place, his work reveals a myriad of words and symbols. Stephen combines history, trivia, personal experience, local knowledge and imaginative additions to creatively explore the contradictions of our modern world.

With his education in fine arts, he applies this artistic skill and utilises a wealth of technical knowledge in his pursuit to create imaginative and progressive artwork. The originality of his creations and desire to evolve the pieces, illustrates his driving passion in the interpretation of pattern and unites innovative design with authentic craftsmanship.

*Please note the following designs will have to be reflected Deep Dreams, Cascade and World Revolves, visit www.newmor.com to view the full collection.

Ordering is simple – choose a design and send us your wall dimensions. Visit newmor.com for the complete Augustus Kotei collection, samples and information about our bespoke wallcovering service.

Customise – we print onto a huge range of substrates, including textures and metallics. Our in-house design studio can recolour and resize most of our designs. We will work with you to select the perfect specification for your application and budget.

Our wallcoverings – our wallcoverings are fire rated wide-width fabric backed vinyl. They are commercial quality, and we print with UV cured inks which are durable and suitable for high traffic areas.

Window film – our designs also look great printed onto clear or frosted film and Demiview film.

Samples – we will send two samples; one is a section of the full size image to show quality and colour, the second is a mini version of the whole wall. You will also receive a digital sample to show drops and layout.

Delivery – your order will be dispatched within 7-10 days from the approval of your samples.

Installation – digital wallcoverings are as easy to install as standard wide-width wallcoverings. Full hanging instructions are available on our website, and are also supplied with your order. The design is custom printed and supplied in drops to fit your wall, with trim for overlap and cut through.

Visit www.newmor.com for more Newmor Designer and Newmor Custom designs. We can also print your own artwork, images from stock libraries or our design studio can work with you to create a bespoke design. Please contact us or visit our website for more details.

Koroni - classic

Leigh Bagley is a contemporary textile and pattern designer, celebrated for his prominent use of colour and geometric forms within his work. His work redefines contemporary art for interiors and public buildings, directly taking influence from everyday surroundings and a love of modernist and abstract aesthetics.

A graduate of the renowned Royal College of Art in London, Leigh set up his textiles design studio in 2012 retailing Limited Edition artwork. Leigh is also a lecturer at the Glasgow School of Art, imparting his love of pattern and colour enabling him to share his knowledge to the benefit of future designers and makers.

Ordering is simple – choose a design and send us your wall dimensions. Visit newmor.com for the complete Leigh Bagley collection, samples and information about our bespoke wallcovering service.
